For 2018-2019 Club Season – 12's-13's-14's Age Divisions

LAVA & VENTURA COUNTY VOLLEYBALL CLUB (VCVC) COME TOGETHER TO LAUNCH LAVA VENTURA COUNTY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE!

The Los Angeles Volleyball Academy (LAVA) is pleased to announce the joining of forces by LAVA, our LAVA Islands affiliate location in Ventura, and Ventura County Volleyball Club (VCVC) to launch a new girls volleyball club with competitive travel teams, limited travel teams, and youth and juniors programs serving the Ventura County area from Camarillo to Santa Barbara, and communities beyond.

LAVA Ventura County (also known as LAVA VC for short) will be based out of its own exclusive two-court facility in Camarillo, plus additional practice facilities at Ventura Missionary School and other local Ventura-based sites. LAVA VC features an excellent staff of administrators and coaches with deep ties to the club volleyball community in Ventura.

LAVA is an affiliation of junior volleyball clubs in Southern California, one of the largest club volleyball organizations west of the Rockies, featuring some of the finest coaches, athletes, and administrators in the region. LAVA's Mission Statement is best and succinctly summed up with the phrase Volleyball Done Differently, as the organization strives to do differently, to do better, in every single aspect of its enterprise.

Long-time coach and respected volleyball personality Steve "Yosh" Yoshimoto will take the reins of LAVA VC as Director, overseeing approximately 12 girls and boys teams for the 2018-19 club season in addition to an expansive youth "Lite" program. Boys teams will operate under the SMBC Boys banner, the official boys program of LAVA.

From Yosh: "We are thrilled to be joining LAVA, one of the finest names in club volleyball today. Our coaches are excited to join something that provides such excellent service to its members, maintains honor and integrity as core virtues, and competes on the court at the highest levels both regionally and nationally. LAVA VC is ready to bring all of that and more to the LAVA and SMBC families."

Welcome to the Los Angeles Volleyball Academy, LAVA VC!
